A woman wearing a vibrant red dress and a straw hat is kneeling on a stone platform in a pond, feeding a large group of koi fish. The pond is surrounded by several stone statues of figures, and a traditional pagoda is visible in the background. The scene is set during sunset, with a warm orange glow on the horizon.

ABOUT THE CLUB

Accor Vacation Club is part of the world's largest vacation ownership company, Travel + Leisure Co. with over 800,000 member families worldwide. Travel + Leisure Co. has 275+ resorts in the United States, Canada, Mexico, Thailand, Indonesia, Japan, Europe, Fiji, Australia, New Zealand and elsewhere.

Accor Vacation Club Asia Pacific is an exciting, innovative holiday ownership club offering fantastic choice and flexibility to its members in a wide variety of holiday destinations worldwide. Accor Vacation Club Asia Pacific Members enjoy making long lasting memories by holidaying at quality holiday destinations across the Asia Pacific region and beyond. Stunning landscapes, tranquil rainforests, sparkling seas, and cosmopolitan cities – unforgettable holiday experiences are waiting for you to enjoy as an Accor Vacation Club Asia Pacific member.

CLUB PROPERTY

Members of Accor Vacation Club Asia Pacific enjoy the benefits of the Club property in Novotel Nusa Dua located in Nusa Dua, Bali, Indonesia. The Club accommodation is of exceptional high quality, fitting the standards of Accor Hotels' premium brands.

Another benefit for Members when they stay in Club property is that instead of using money to pay for the accommodation, they use Points. And unlike the cost of standard hotel accommodation which increases each year with inflation, the Points required to stay in Club property is guaranteed never to increase, once set. Therefore the Points cost of your holidays in Club property is inflation proof.

Members can also share their Points with family and friends and can make bookings for them in Club accommodation.
